Tacoma's Arts Night Out

National Night Out gets an artistic twist with the annual free Arts Night Out at Jason Lee Middle School Tuesday thanks to Hilltop Artists. Watch glassblowing, hear live music, make chalk art, take a skateboarding lesson, paint a T-shirt and more in the courtyard behind the track. 4-7 p.m. Tuesday . Free. Jason Lee Middle School, 602 N. Sprague Ave., Tacoma. hilltopartists.org/events/arts-night-out.

Hilltop Artists' residency at Museum of Glass

This week, watch students from the Hilltop Artists glassblowing program work in the Museum of Glass Hot Shop. Through Friday, they'll be working on centerpieces for their annual fundraising luncheon using caneworking techniques, while on Saturday and Sunday they'll make work for their spring 2016 installation at the Seymour Conservatory, inspired by storytelling in South Asian kantha embroidery. 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday (July 29) through Saturday, noon-5 p.m. Sunday. Admission $15 general; $13 AAA members; $12 seniors, students and military; $5 ages 6-12; free for 5 and younger. Museum of Glass, 1801 Dock St., Tacoma. 866-4-MUSEUM, museumofglass.org.
